

Carers Count are still here during the lockdown

Although we currently find ourselves living in very strange times amid the coronavirus pandemic, we are pleased to say that Carers Count is still ready to offer support!

We are still taking referrals and supporting carers during this period of isolation.

We continue to offer;

- Benefit Advice
- Support around access to social care
- Emotional support for carers
- Carers Advocacy
- Specialist support for carers of people with mental health issues
- Information and guidance for organisations wanting to support working carers

Our phone lines remain open on weekdays from 9am to 5pm
